

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION: THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1875

Daily Constitution

ATLANTA

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1875

Supreme Court Decisions.

Federal proceedings reported for the

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION by Henry Jackson, stated court reporter. The decisions immediately on all the important cases court in the decision of the term are published in complete form at the

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION to others

Georgia Reports, volumes 45, 47, 48 and 49 can be had, new and elegantly bound, at a reasonable price, from W. A. Hamilton, 18 Broad Street.

SUGAR CANE PLANTATION,

WM. MCNAULTY & CO.

See Daily and Weekly Cooperator for sections of our "news,"

Jameson's Arches,

18 Broad Street.

Have a large supply of White Pine Doors,

Blinds, Mantels, and Sash glass and unglazed, 4c per light, glazed 8c per light,

100ft. long, glazed, 8c per light, glass 10c per light, 100ft. long, 10c per pair, 10c

100ft. 12c. Blinds, 8c per pair. All others in proportion. All articles manufactured in Georgia.

For the best and最inexpensive

Kerosene and Machine Oils, and

Paints, Doors, Windows and Blinds,

18 Broad Street.

May be had about

New Advertisements.

No mapping or Arches, 18

ice houses, and Strawberry and orange festival.

Foster's Texas Drawing.

Hodges' wife—W. S. Wilson.

Exemption—John A. Jones.

Georgia sheriff's sale.

Douglas county sheriff's sale.

Avoid Lamp Explosions.

The best way to avoid lamp explosions is to procure good head light oil from Murdoch, Simons & Hill.

Judge—die.

A PLEASANT PIC-NIC.

The Catholic Children of Atlanta,

And Their Friends at Stone Mountain.

STRAW.

The Catholic Sunday school scholars, teachers, and friends, had their picnic at Stone mountain yesterday, and it was a good one.

A NUMBER OF CASES

were engaged for the party, and many girls and as well behaved boys, and young gentlemen, as we have seen go out for a picnic this season, were present.

ALL ABOARD.

found everybody in a comfortable seat,

the train moved off, amid the echoes of a happy time from friends about the deck.

Pleasant weather and delightful atmosphere, was the emblem of all the train moved gradually out from beyond the city, and on to an avenue of trees.

A hurry was not needed; it was not used for each was destined that the day before, and each and every day that day in en-yment.

THE ARRIVAL.

The rooms of the King house are good for drinking, the day was pleasant, and the whole house was good, and it was a pretty sight to see so many happy couples dancing.

It was so alluring, that very few could resist the temptation to join.

THE DINNER.

In the early morning, and the excuse gives one an appetite, and seduces a man to go to the dinner-table.

He who has been to the dinner-table will be a better judge of what he we should eat at the various tables, we would feel at home.

THE FULL OF FAIR.

But a' don't. There was chicken, and sausage, and turkey, roast lamb, steak, chops, and roast veal, and and confections &c. Several is all of the eatables art.

The place was elegantly set, and the room was filled with the fragrance of flowers.

There was a brief speech, and then the band struck up.

THE CONFEDERATE ORPHANS AND

Widows.

The reporter attended on yesterday, from the Atlanta Constitution, a plan which was submitted to the editor by Captain John Miller.

He also permitted the reporter to read communications from several persons notifying him of the organization of a "Fund for Confederate Orphans and Widows."

THE INTEREST INCONFIDENT AND MORE

CONFIDENT.

The Meeting at James' Hall.

The Interest Intensifying and More

CONFIDENT.

AN EXPERT.

It is well known as an expert in the art of Chemistry, and all of the manufacturers of Steel & Iron are the result of his researches.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is the author of a number of

books on the subject.

He is

THE VAUD AND THE MONGOLIAN.

A maid kept a "Mongolian" week, & so I find that she could never be found.

So I find that she could never be found.

She found a gay bougher in W.

A gay bougher in W.

Says she, "Glorious fun!

"I'll run out & see you.

Of a gun, come and mark sweet L."

Something must have bothered the right.

Or the left, or the right.

Muches high old galles!

Or Husky Doree.

More than you can eat all right!

Then I find that she, "W."

Cirrus has traveled this way!

So taking her hat,

She got up & sat.

And is still going to do so.

BREVITIES.

The Chinese make a soup of cabbages boiled with onions.

Humming birds are said to be more numerous this year than for many years previously.

A New Jersey man swallowed a fly and was so disgusted that he died. Late last year also died. Case of mutual disgust.

Philadelphia gives employment to less than 60,000 men—chiefly in exhibiting their spring horses on Euclid Avenue.

Jouquin Miller is about ready with another book of poems, and the people are preparing to take the woods.

It makes one melancholy to think that there are now, in Milan, three hundred thousand persons who have given up a view to the operatic stage.

It is generally the bold headed Juve who dissent. He feels that he has less to lose than his brother.

Another of the sons from Italian parents in New York recently was a candidate of old houses and shoes, all remarks be for their enormous size.

A new and fatal disease has just attacked the lemon plant, the origin of which is not yet fully explained.

Recently, Miss Turner must mount the lecture platform," says the Rochester Citizen. "She'd let one car run up steps while she's accept-Baltimore News.

Transfusion of blood is a humbug in some cases. A Chicago man had a pint of bull dog's blood conducted into his veins and then tried to kick his heart. He died up front—Death Free Press.

—San Francisco boot black: "Shine your boots sir." Mr. James Black testifies, "I didn't tell you we wanted money, but I didn't want my boots blackened."

"Yes, dad, master, but I didn't know what you'd made a revolution?" Exit imp.

He landed on the stage, pointing on with words of love and admiration to the lovely being on the other side. It was dark. He could not see her, but she said, "Pray cease. Only a week ago you told me that same story three doors down here. They played—l'Amour de la Terre.

James Eisk is said to have created a genuine masterpiece in Mr. Hippolyte's prancing stallion. The stallion (of Edward) and his family are quite regular in attendance. He avows on invitation and said: "I had a son that I loved dearly, but he was killed. His son's name was James Fish, Jr. Perhaps you have heard of him."

The click and clack of the croquet ball is heard again in the land, in connection with: "You did not say I had to leave home, but I did not say I had to leave home, and then tried to kick his heart."

—N.Y. Mail. The reader must be patient. Just now all the institutions for the feeble-minded and the epileptic little crooks here are there now as before.

Dreadful misadventure! One of the small boys who send stones through the windows of the railway carriage performed at this year's fair in which the princess of Wales was on a trip to Windsor. Whether this is treason, murder or sudden death, the lawyers have no doubt.

—Miss Jerome, of New York, was married about a year ago to Lord Randolph Henry Churchill, in Paris, and now the news comes that Lord Randolph Henry is a financial wreck. His estates will be sold for debt, and the family will seek refuge on the continent, where living is easy, and great style is the rule.

—The reader may be interested, however, with that discretion that is characteristic of younger sons of noblemen, was careful to have pap Jerome come down pretty hairy and ready to go to the Devil's Churchill. So the young couple may be happy yet. There are very good boardings to be had on the continent, and at reasonable charges.

MARKET REPORTS.

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

(By Telegraph to The Constitution.) NEW YORK, June 1.—Cotton, $1.00 per lb.; cotton oil, 10¢ per lb.; cotton seed, 42¢ per bushel; cotton seed oil, 16¢ per bushel.

Futures opened quiet and steady; June 10, 32; July 10, 33; August 16, 34; October 16, 35.

Flour unchanged. Wheat rather more steady. Corn stable. Buckwheat, 35¢ per bushel; oats, 30¢; rye, 32¢; wheat, 34¢; buckwheat, 35¢; oats, 30¢; rye, 32¢. Rosin heavy at 32. Rosin heavy at 31. Soa for strained. Freight first class, 30¢; second, 25¢; third, 20¢; fourth, 15¢. Money 2½c. Gold 10¢c. Exchange—long $4 88¢; short $4 90¢. Governments—State bonds quoted at par.

Wool—Washed Shoddy: unwashed 5c.

Yarn—31c.

Art. Grease—per dozen, $1.50.

Table Salt—per dozen, $1.50.

Concentrated Lime—per case, $5.50; per bushel, $1.50.

Onions—white, fresh, very choice, $5.50; red, 50¢.

Apples—choice to fancy, 50¢.

Oranges—choice, 50¢; fancy, 40¢.

Raisins—Laynes, whole, per box $50; dried, 50¢; dried, 50¢.

Crackers—salted, 50¢; unsalted, 40¢.

Olives—Laynes, per lb., 50¢.

English Peas—selected, 50¢; choice, 40¢.

Turnips—white, 50¢.

Carrots—white, 50¢.

Potatoes—white, 50¢.

Onions—white, 5